DISCIPLINE & FINES	Individual players will be required to reimburse the Club for the cost of certain fines levied on the player. In particular this includes – but is not limited to – fines imposed by the SAASL accrued during the course of matches played for the Club. Loss-of or Damage-to club uniform, equipment or facilities (excluding “normal match play or use”) will result in the full cost of the item or repairs being charged to the player.
Yellow/Red Cards	The Club receives a monetary fine and the player is suspended for one (1) match each time they accrue four (4) yellow cards. The Club receives a monetary fine and the player is suspended for at least one (1) match each time a player receives a red card. Any card resulting in a sending off for fighting OR verbal abuse, the player will be liable to reimburse the Club for fines received. Additional fines and/or club penalties may be imposed at the discretion of the Head Coach and/or Committee.
Suspensions	A PLAYER WILL NOT BE ELIGIBLE TO PLAY FOR THE CLUB UNTIL ALL OUTSTANDING FINES FOR THAT PLAYER HAVE BEEN PAID TO THE CLUB. Players must serve their suspension as linesman for one of the club's senior or competitive junior teams and the ban will remain in place until that duty has been served.
Attendance	At the discretion of the head coach: Any 'no show' for a game will receive a one (1) match ban. Failure to provide adequate notice that a player isn't available will result in a ban at the head coach's discretion based upon circumstances. Adequate notice means by 9pm on the day before a game. It is the responsibility of each individual player to notify the head coach if they are unavailable for selection.
MEDICAL INFORMATION	Any health information given will not prevent participation in any club activity unless further medical advice warrants exclusion. The information requested will be considered confidential by the club and will be treated accordingly. The information is sought in order to protect and assist the player so that this activity may be a safe and enjoyable experience.
